Beverly Hills Health and Safety Commission and Fire Department Promote Pet Safety Decals

Beverly Hills, CA – Beverly Hills Fire Chief Ralph Mundell and Lisa Schwartz, Chair of the Health & Safety Commission are pleased to introduce “Rescue Rover,” a free pet decal that will inform the Fire Department that there are pets inside a home in case of fire or other emergencies.

The Pet Alert decals can be labeled for cats, dogs, birds, or other small animals. They should be placed in a high visibility area on front or back doors, prominent front or back windows or sliding glass doors. Beverly Hills firefighters responding to an emergency will know at a glance that a pet may be inside and need rescuing.

The pet decals are available now at the Fire Department Headquarters, 445 N. Rexford Dr., and also will be given out to Beverly Hills residents at the opening of the dog park on Sept. 6.

For more information, please call the Fire Department at (310) 281-2703.
