Countertenor Slava Kagan-Paley Gives Concert At Greystone Mansion Intimate Music in the Mansion Series Features the Worldclass Belarusian/Israeli Singer

On Sunday, March 25 at 2:00 p.m. Beverly Hills' historic Greystone Mansion will host an intimate concert featuring countertenor Slava Kagan-Paley, whom the Times of London has called "a diamond among voices."

Born in Belarus and currently sharing homes between Tel Aviv and Moscow, Mr. Kagan-Paley made his debut in 1987 with the Leningrad Philharmonic as a soloist in Schumann's Requiem. Since completing his vocal training at the Guildhall School in London he has performed worldwide. After 10 year under exclusive contract with Japan Victor Entertainment, Slava is available to US audiences again, and Beverly Hills is privileged to be among first to present him.

The City of Beverly Hills prides itself in bringing its residents, visitors and patrons of the arts the finest in solo and chamber music performances. Since 1994, under Artistic Director Laura Schmieder, Music in the Mansion has presented concerts featuring selected prize-winning international and local artists. From January through June, monthly Sunday concerts are followed by meet-the-artists receptions and a tour of the first floor of the Greystone Mansion.

The remainder of the exceptional 2012 season includes: April 22, Aiana & Hausmann String Quartets/USA; May 13, Cellist Francisco Vila/Ecuador; June 17 Trombonist Ohtae Kwon/Korea & Flutist Jenni Olson/LA. Performances are held at 2:00 pm on Sundays. The season will conclude with iPalpiti international orchestra at the inner court of the mansion on Wednesday, July 25, 6:30pm.

Tickets for each concert are $20, with the exception of the July 25 concert which is $30 per ticket. Seating is limited and advanced tickets are required.
