Former Beverly Hills Mayor Maxwell Salter Passes Away

Beverly Hills, CA – Former Beverly Hills Mayor Maxwell Hillary Salter has passed away at the age of 90. A resident of Beverly Hills for over 40 years, he served with distinction on the City Council from 1986-1994 and was mayor in 1989 and 1993.

Mr. Salter was an active community leader, philanthropist and businessman. He played a significant role in several community organizations, including serving as president of Temple Beth Am and as a member of the Board of Governors of the United Jewish Welfare Fund. Mr. Salter was a patron member of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and a Friend of the Los Angeles Music Center. He served in the United States Navy from 1942-1946.

"Max Salter was a mentor to me and I will deeply miss him," said Mayor Jimmy Delshad. "He was an innovator who embodied the best of our City by setting the highest standards for leadership and integrity, while demonstrating the importance of collaboration and respect. He gave selflessly of his time and energy to serve our community and his contributions are momentous and enduring. On behalf of the City Council and all City employees I would like to extend my condolences to Janet and their wonderful family with the gratitude of the entire Beverly Hills community for their incomparable commitment to our City."
